drug treatment programs for youth arrested for possession of a substance; and to repeal section 401 of An Act To provide for the more effective prevention, detection, and punishment of crime in the District of Columbia; the Criminal Justice Supervisory Board Act of 1978; and Chapter 10 of Title 28 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations.

RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this resolution may be cited as the “Omnibus Criminal Code Amendments Emergency Amendment Declaration Resolution of 2012”.

Omnibus Criminal Code Amendments
Emergency
Amendment
Declaration
Resolution of 2012

Sec. 2. (a) The Council unanimously approved on first reading Bill 19-645, the Omnibus Criminal Code Amendments Act of 2012, at the December 4, 2012 Legislative Meeting. This legislation will appear on the agenda for second reading at the December 18, 2012 Legislative Meeting.

(b) The provisions of Bill 19-645 make important amendments and clarifications to the District’s criminal code and provide better tools for law enforcement to reduce crime.

(c) Amendments to the criminal code require 60 days congressional review, which means that the improvements in Bill 19-645 would have to wait until the Spring of 2013.

(d) It is especially important that a number of sections in Bill 19-645 become effective as quickly as possible. Those include:

(1) Two sections make clarifications and returning prosecutorial authority to the Office of the Attorney General for offenses related to Disturbances of the Public Peace (blocking passage and disorderly conduct);

(2) One section updates the District’s Controlled Substances statute, including a number of substances that are already banned under federal law, but law enforcement is unable to bring charged in District court as the substances are not banned at the local level.

(3) Clarifications of the law regarding tampering with a GPS tracking device; and

(4) Clarifications of the law regarding licensed massage therapists so that they may practice with minimal burden.

Sec. 3. The Council of the District of Columbia determines that the circumstances enumerated in section 2 constitute emergency circumstances making it necessary that the Omnibus Criminal Code Amendments Emergency Amendment Act of 2012 be adopted after a single reading.

Sec. 4. This resolution shall take effect immediately.
