§ 2-1215.02

To amend, on an emergency basis, the Business Improvement Districts Act of 1996 to update the laws concerning business improvement districts.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the “Business Improvement Districts Emergency Amendment Act of 2014”.

Sec. 2. The Business Improvement Districts Act of 1996, effective May 29, 1996 (D.C. Law 11-134; D.C. Official Code § 2-1215.01 et seq.), is amended as follows:

(a) Section 2(a)(4) (D.C. Official Code § 2-1215.01(a)(4)) is amended by striking the word “nonexempt” and inserting the word “taxable” in its place.

(b) Section 3 (D.C. Official Code § 2-1215.02) is amended as follows:

(1) Paragraph (8) is amended to read as follows:

“(8) “BID tax” means an additional real property tax or possessory interest tax assessed and levied by the District on, and payable by, the owners of taxable properties or holders of a possessory interest in a Business Improvement District subject to the BID certification processes of this act. ”.

(2) Paragraph (10) is amended by striking the word “nonexempt” and inserting the word “taxable” in its place.

(3) Paragraph (16) is amended to read as follows:

“(16) “Member” means a member of the BID Corporation, the membership of which shall be comprised of each owner of taxable property and each commercial tenant in the BID area, and each owner who becomes a member pursuant to section 22.”.

(4) Paragraph (18) is repealed.

(5) Paragraph (19) is amended by striking the phrase “nonexempt real property” and inserting the phrase “taxable property” in its place.

(6) Paragraph (20) is amended by striking the phrase “nonexempt real property” and inserting the phrase “taxable property” in its place.

(7) Paragraph (23) is amended by striking the phrase “nonexempt real property” and inserting the phrase “taxable property” in its place.

(8) A new paragraph (24) is added to read as follows:

“(24) “Taxable property” means real property subject to real property taxation or real property for which a holder of a possessory interest is subject to possessory interest taxation, including:

“(A) Class 2, Class 3, and Class 4 Property, as defined in D.C. Official Code § 47-813, located within any BID, excluding the properties exempt from real property taxes pursuant to Chapters 10 or 46 of Title 47;

“(B) Class 1 Property, as defined in D.C. Official Code § 47-813, for the Mount Vernon Triangle, NoMa, and Capitol Riverfront BIDs, excluding:

“(i) Real property improved by a residential building where 90% or more of the leased units are households with at least one member who is 62 years of age or older and all members are 55 years of age or older;

“(ii) Real property improved by a residential building where 20% or more of the units are subject to a contract for project-based assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, approved August 22, 1974 (88 Stat. 662; 42 U.S.C. § 1437f);

“(iii) Real property improved by a residential building with fewer than 10 dwelling units, as defined in D.C. Official Code § 47-813(d)(3); and

“(iv) Real property exempt from paying real property taxes pursuant to Chapters 10 or 46 of Title 47 of the District of Columbia Official Code; or

“(C) Real property belonging to government and international organizations, including a leasehold interest, possessory interest, beneficial interest, or beneficial use of real property, as provided in D.C. Official Code § 47-1005.01(b), for periods beginning after September 30, 2014, where the real property would be taxable under subparagraphs (A) or (B) of this paragraph if not exempt or immune from real property taxation resulting in the possessory interest being taxable under D.C. Official Code § 47-1005.01, except where a payment in lieu of tax agreement has been negotiated and payments related to the agreement are current.”.

(c) Section 4 (D.C. Official Code § 2-1215.03) is amended by striking the phrase “Each owner and” and inserting the phrase “Each owner of a taxable property and” in its place.

Note,
§ 2-1215.03

Note, New

“Sec. 10a. Adjacent or abutting properties.

“(a) An owner of an adjacent or abutting property may petition to join an existing BID if the owner sends a letter requesting to be added to a BID to the BID Board and to the Mayor, listing the address, square and lot number, owner, and owner's contact information. The BID board must vote to approve the addition. If the BID Board votes to approve adding the additional property, the BID Board shall send a letter to the Mayor with the results of the vote (“results letter”).

“(b)(1) The Mayor shall have 30 days after receiving the results letter from the BID Board to review the proposed addition and determine if the addition is an adjacent or abutting property not currently located in another BID. If the Mayor finds that the proposed addition is not an adjacent or abutting property or that the proposed addition is currently located in another BID, the Mayor shall issue an order rejecting the addition.

“(2) If the Mayor does not issue an order approving or rejecting the addition within the 30-day review period, the addition shall be deemed approved.

“(3) If the addition is approved or deemed approved, the property shall be added to the BID at the next regularly scheduled billing pursuant to section 16.

“(c) The proposed addition shall be subject to section 10(c).

“Sec. 10b. Expanding the taxable real property within a BID.

Note, New

“(a) An established BID may only expand categories of taxable real property if:

“(1) Owners of at least 51% interest in the assessed value of the taxable real properties and at least 25% in number of individual real properties, consisting of a new type of taxable real property of record within the BID's geographic area, petition the existing BID to join the BID;

“(2) The petition is accepted by a majority vote of the existing BID Board;

“(3) The petition is submitted to the Mayor with:

“(A) The name and address of the BID Corporation and a copy of the resolution adopted by the Board of Directors of the BID Corporation accepting the petition;

“(B) A description by lot, square, and street address of the property of each owner of the proposed new taxable real property type, to the extent reasonably ascertainable; provided, that a property subdivided into separate condominium units shall constitute a single property for purposes of this subparagraph;

“(C) The most recent assessed value of each taxable real property of the proposed new taxable real property type, to the extent reasonably ascertainable from District property tax records or a final determination of the Real Property Tax Appeals Commission for the District of Columbia; provided, that a property subdivided into separate condominium units shall constitute a single real property for purposes of this subparagraph;

“(D) A business plan for including the petition area in the operations of the BID; which business plan shall contain, at a minimum:

“(i) The specific goals and objectives for the inclusion of the petitioning real property class in the BID consistent with the BID activity, as defined in section 3(6); and

“(ii) The applicable BID taxes;

“(E) A list of the current members of the Board of Directors of the BID; and

“(F) The current articles of incorporation and the bylaws of the BID; and

“(4) The petition is approved by the Mayor in accordance with the procedures set forth in sections 6 and 7; provided, that wherever the word “application” or the phrase “BID application” appears in sections 6 or 7, the word or phrase shall be considered to refer to the expansion petition, and wherever reference is made to the registration of the BID and the nonprofit corporation in section 7, the reference shall be considered to refer to registration of the expanded BID.

“(b) The Mayor shall approve a petition if the Mayor determines that the petition was properly filed and adoption of the petition is consistent with the purposes of this act and the BID activity, as defined in section 3(6). An expansion of a BID's taxable real property pursuant to this section shall become effective on the effective date of an act of Council approving the BID's taxable real property expansion. Initial BID taxes for the area shall be collected at the next practicable regularly scheduled billing pursuant to section 16.

“(c)(1) For the purposes of this section, individual taxable properties shall mean properties identified by separate lot and square numbers to the extent reasonably ascertainable from the records of the Office of Tax and Revenue or Office of Recorder of Deeds; provided, that any property subdivided into separate condominium units shall constitute a single property for the purpose of determining the number of taxable properties referred to in subsection (a) of this section; provided further, that the condominium units shall constitute separate properties for purposes of assessing and levying any BID charges.

“(2) Changes in the assessed values occurring after submission of a BID application, whether through regular reassessment, appeals, or otherwise, shall not affect the validity of the BID application to be taken into account in the Mayor's review of the BID application.

“(d) The Mayor may designate the Department of Small and Local Business Development, or a successor thereto, to perform the review functions described by this section.

“Sec. 10c. Expanding the taxable real property within a BID for newly enacted BIDs.

Note, New
§ 2-1215.09c

“(a) A BID established after the effective date of the Business Improvement Districts Amendment Act of 2014, passed on 2nd reading on September 23, 2014 (Enrolled version of Bill 20-203), may only expand categories of taxable real property to include Class I residential property if:

“(1) Owners of at least 51% interest in the assessed value of the taxable real properties and at least 25% in number of individual real properties, consisting of a new type of taxable real property of record within the BID’s geographic area, petition the existing BID to join the BID;

“(2) The petition is accepted by a majority vote of the existing BID Board; and

“(3) The petition is submitted to the Mayor with:

“(A) The name and address of the BID Corporation and a copy of the resolution adopted by the Board of Directors of the BID Corporation accepting the petition;

“(B) A description by lot, square, and street address of the property of each owner of the proposed new taxable real property type, to the extent reasonably ascertainable; provided, that a property subdivided into separate condominium units shall constitute a single property for purposes of this subparagraph;

“(C) The most recent assessed value of each taxable real property of the proposed new taxable real property type, to the extent reasonably ascertainable from District property tax records or a final determination of the Real Property Tax Appeals Commission for the District of Columbia;

“(D) A business plan for including the petition area in the operations of the BID; which business plan shall contain, at a minimum:

“(i) The specific goals and objectives for the inclusion of the petitioning real property class in the BID consistent with the BID activity as defined in section 3(6); and

“(ii) The applicable BID taxes;

“(E) A list of the current members of the Board of Directors of the BID;

“(F) The current articles of incorporation and the bylaws of the BID; and

“(4) The petition is approved by the Mayor in accordance with the procedures set forth in sections 6 and 7; provided, that wherever the word “application” or phrase “BID application” appears in sections 6 and 7, the word or phrase shall be considered to refer to the expansion petition, and wherever reference is made to the registration of the BID and the nonprofit corporation in section 7, the reference shall be considered to refer to registration of the expanded BID.

“(b) The Mayor shall approve a petition if the Mayor determines that the petition was properly filed and adoption of the petition is consistent with the purposes of this act and the definition of BID activity in section 3(6)(b). An expansion of a BID's taxable real property pursuant to this section shall become effective on the effective date of an act of Council that approves such BID's taxable real property expansion. Initial BID taxes for such area shall be collected at the next practicable regularly scheduled billing pursuant to section 16.

“(c)(1) For the purposes of this section, individual taxable properties shall mean properties identified by separate lot and square numbers to the extent reasonably ascertainable from the records of the Office of Tax and Revenue or Office of Recorder of Deeds.

“(2) Changes in the assessed values occurring after submission of a BID application, whether through regular reassessment, appeals, or otherwise, shall not affect the validity of the BID application to be taken into account in the Mayor's review of the BID application.

“(d) The Mayor may designate the Department of Small and Local Business Development, or a successor thereto, to perform the review functions described by this section.”.

(j) Section 11 (D.C. Official Code § 2-1215.10) is amended as follows:

Note,

(1) Subsection (a) is amended to read as follows:

“(a) Except as otherwise provided by this act, meetings of the members shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws but shall occur at least once each year after the formation of the BID. The bylaws shall specify an officer who shall send each member notice of the time, place, and purposes of the meeting. Notice shall be given at least 21 days in advance of any annual or regularly scheduled meeting and at least 7 days in advance of any other meeting, in one of the following ways:

“(1) First class mail to all members of record at the address of their respective properties and to such other address as may have been designated to the officer;

“(2) Hand delivered by the officer, or the officer's agent; provided, that the officer certifies in writing that notice was actually delivered to the member; or

“(3) Electronically to the member's email address of record as may have been designated to the officer.”.

(2) A new subsection (c) is added to read as follows:

“(c) Meetings may be held by telephone, electronically, or by other means of communication; provided, that all participants can hear or read the proceeding, vote on the matters discussed, and make comments.”.
