AN ACT

Bill 20-168
Act 20-219
Effective
November 26,
2013

Codification
District of Columbia
Official Code
2001 Edition

To amend the Department of Health Functions Clarification Act of 2001 to permit cottage food businesses in the District to operate without a license from the Department of Health if the specific laws concerning cottage food businesses are followed, to authorize the Department of Health to define food products to be sold by cottage food businesses, to establish storage and labeling requirements for food products produced by cottage food businesses, to authorize inspections of cottage food businesses if a complaint is received by the Department of Health, and to authorize the Department of Health to issue regulations concerning cottage food businesses.

Cottage Food
Amendment
Act of 2013

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the “Cottage Food Amendment Act of 2013”.

Sec. 2. The Department of Health Functions Clarification Act of 2001, effective October 3, 2001 (D.C. Law 14-28; D.C. Official Code § 7-731 et seq.), is amended by adding a new part C to read as follows.

“Part C. Cottage Food.

“Sec. 4931. Definitions.

“For the purposes of this part, the term:

“(1) “CFBR” means the Cottage Food Business Registry within the Department of Health.

“(2) “Cottage food business” means a business that:

“(A) Produces or packages cottage food products in a residential kitchen;

“(B) Sells the cottage food products in accordance with section 4932 and regulations adopted by the Department of Health;

“(C) Has annual revenues from the sale of cottage food products in an amount not exceeding $25,000; and

“(D) Has obtained a home occupancy permit from the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs pursuant to section 203 of Title 11 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations (11 DCMR § 203).

“(3) “Cottage food product” means a non-potentially hazardous food, as specified in regulations adopted by the Department of Health, that is sold at a farmer's market or public event in accordance with section 4932 and regulations adopted by the Department of Health.

“(4) “Department” means the Department of Health.

“Sec. 4932. Cottage food businesses.

“(a) This section shall not:

New
Subchapter
III,
Chapter 7A

New
§ 7-749.01

New
§ 7-749.02

“(1) Apply to a food establishment that is required to have a license under Department regulations; or

“(2) Exempt a cottage food business from any applicable District or federal tax laws.

“(b)(1) A cottage food business shall register with the Cottage Food Business Registry within the Department before beginning operation.

(2) The Department shall perform an inspection of the cottage food business before that business may sell its cottage food products.

(3) If a cottage food business passes the inspection, the Department shall issue a cottage food business identification number to the cottage food business.

(4) The Department shall have the authority to enter the premises of a cottage food business registered with the CFBR to conduct a pre-operational inspection and to investigate complaints pertaining to the sale or preparation of cottage food products pursuant to subsection (d) of this section.

“(c) The owner of a cottage food business may sell only cottage food products that are:

“(1) Stored on the premises of the cottage food business; and

“(2) Prepackaged with a label that contains the following information:

“(A) The cottage food business identification number;

“(B) The name of the cottage food product;

“(C) The ingredients of the cottage food product in descending order of the amount of each ingredient by weight;

“(D) The net weight or net volume of the cottage food product;

“(E) Allergen information as specified by federal labeling requirements;

“(F) If any nutritional claim is made, nutritional information as specified by federal labeling requirements; and

“(G) The following statement printed in 10-point or larger type in a color that provides a clear contrast to the background of the label: “Made by a cottage food business that is not subject to the District of Columbia's food safety regulations.”

“(d)(1) The Department may investigate any complaint alleging that a cottage food business has violated this section.

“(2) On receipt of a complaint, a representative of the Department, at a reasonable time, may enter and inspect the premises of a cottage food business to determine compliance with this section.

“(3) The owner of a cottage food business may not:

“(A) Refuse to grant access to a representative who requests to enter and inspect the premises of the cottage food business under paragraph (2) of this subsection; or

“(B) Interfere with any inspection under paragraph (2) of this subsection.

“(4) An investigation of a cottage food business conducted under this subsection may include sampling of a cottage food product to determine if the cottage food product is misbranded or adulterated.

COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
D.C. Law 20-63, effective January 25, 2014
(Delayed Applicability)

20 DCSTAT 2891

“(e) The Mayor, pursuant to Title I of the District of Columbia Administrative Act, approved October 21, 1968 (82 Stat. 1204; D.C. Official Code § 2-501 et seq.), may issue rules to implement the provisions of this part. The proposed regulations shall be submitted to the Council for a 60-day period of review, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, legal holidays, and days of Council recess. If the Council does not approve or disapprove the proposed regulations, in whole or in part, by resolution within this 60-day review period, the proposed rules shall be deemed approved.”.

Sec. 3. Applicability.

Delayed
Applicability

This act shall apply upon the inclusion of its fiscal effect in an approved budget and financial plan, as certified by the Chief Financial Officer to the Budget Director of the Council in a certification published by the Council in the District of Columbia Register.

Sec. 4. Fiscal impact statement.

The Council adopts the fiscal impact statement in the committee report as the fiscal impact statement required by section 602(c)(3) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 813; D.C. Official Code § 1-206.02(c)(3)).

Sec. 5. Effective date.

This act shall take effect following approval by the Mayor (or in the event of veto by the Mayor, action by the Council to override the veto), a 30-day period of Congressional review as provided in section 602(c)(1) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 813; D.C. Official Code § 1-206.02(c)(1)), and publication in the District of Columbia Register.
