Resolution of 2013

Sec. 2. (a) Young Men’s Christian Association of Metropolitan Washington (“YMCA”), a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization, is the tenant under a long-term lease (“Lease”) with the YMCA Community Investment Initiative (“YMCA CII”) Anthony Bowen YMCA located at 1325 W Street, N.W., described as Lot 2010, Square 234, in Ward 1.

(b) YMCA will be going to closing for the permanent financing for the new Anthony Bowen YMCA through the New Markets Tax Credit (“NMTC”) program, administered by the U.S. Treasury Department.

(c) The NMTC program requires that the borrower own the property being financed. For this reason, YMCA has formed a subsidiary, YMCA Community Investment Initiative, to be the borrower. At closing on the NMTC financing, YMCA will assign its interest in the Lease to YMCA CII, which will immediately sublease the property to YMCA.

(d) YMCA is currently exempt from District of Columbia real property, possessory interest, recordation, and transfer taxes with respect to the YMCA subsidiary. However, the YMCA subsidiary is not.

(e) Without real property, possessory interest, transfer, and recordation tax exemptions for the YMCA subsidiary, the YMCA would be forced to incur enormous, unanticipated taxes in connection with the NMTC loan transition.

(f) D.C. Official Code § 47-1024 expressly states that “[a]ll property belonging to the Young Men’s Christian Association of the District of Columbia, used and occupied by that Association, shall, so long as the same is so owned and occupied, be exempt from taxation, national and municipal...”.

(g) The financing transaction, for the purposes of utilizing federal credits, is wholly consistent with the intent of that statute.

(h) YMCA will not profit from the NMTC structure described above. The only reason for this structure is that it is required under the NMTC program.

(i) YMCA currently owns the YMCA subsidiary property and thus is exempt from real property, possessory interest, recordation, and transfer taxes with respect to the YMCA subsidiary property.

(j) After the NMTC financing closes, YMCA will continue to own the YMCA subsidiary and will operate the Anthony Bowen YMCA facility to carry out its charitable activities in the U Street/Cardozo/Shaw neighborhoods and beyond.

(k) The transaction is revenue neutral to the District as the property will continue to be owned, used, and controlled by YMCA, which would ordinarily benefit from the provisions of District of Columbia Official Code § 47-1024.

(l) The NMTC transaction is scheduled to close on May 28, 2013.

Sec. 3. The Council of the District of Columbia determines that the circumstances enumerated in section 2 constitute emergency circumstances making it necessary that the YMCA Community Investment Initiative Real Property Tax Exemption Emergency Act of 2013 be adopted after a single reading.

Sec. 4. This resolution shall take effect immediately.
